

Ruby's ideas to help team to sparkle

Actress and comedienne Ruby Wax is the keynote speaker at this year's Business Show.

The event, organised by GWE Business West, is one of the key events in Bristol's business calendar. It is being held at Leigh Court on Wednesday, September 15.

A series of seminars and workshops is being held but Ms Wax and her speech on Leadership Through Communication is expected to be the star attraction.

She speaks regularly at corporate conferences, and runs management workshops for business leaders helping them to find ways of improving communication with clients and colleagues. Her workshops draw on her experience as a stand-up, and use scientific and theoretical learning along with practical exercises.

Ruby Wax will lead workshops at the Business Show at Leigh Court, above, in September

She also uses her 25 years of interviewing experience to help and advise business leaders from such organisations as Skype, Deutsche Bank and the Home Office.